

I am upset by the misuse of the public airwaves by the Sinclair Broadcast Group to air a partisan political program that suits the owners' agenda.

A precedent must be set that prevents such abuse to protect our democratic traditions.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.